SPORTS - For a Healthier Lifestyle

Fingallians Senior team have set their target on doing well in the Division 1 League this season and on being a force to be reckoned with. We'll be playing the best teams in Dublin this year and all your County favourites will be displaying their skills in Fingallians. Why not come down and see Fingallians Senior Football team play at the highest level in Dublin and while you're at it - cheer us on!

Are you interested in Ladies football? Want to be part of the fasted growing sport in the world? In 2006, Fingallians are celebrating 10 years of ladies football. We have reached the very top standard in all grades of competitions within Dublin.

Now we are looking for the next generation of girls to keep us at the top, so if you are interested in playing or being part of a very successful club, call down to the Club on any Saturday morning at 10am or telephone the office @ 8400125

Our other men's adult hurling and football teams are also very successful having been promoted into higher divisions last year. They too need new players to continue with this success and build for the future to provide players for our senior team. That period could be you!

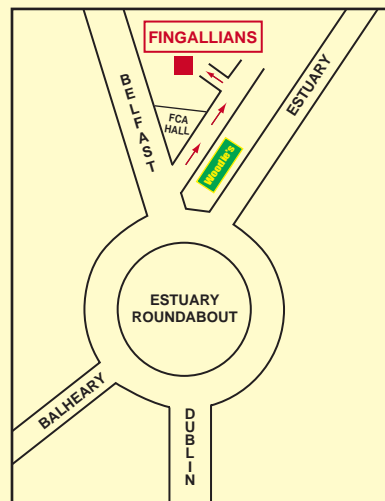

Do your kids want something to do at the weekend. Our Nursery for children aged 5-8 is on every Saturday 10am-12 noon.

If you have an interest in sport, Fingallians is the place for you and/or your children. Tell your friends and family!

PLEASE - GET INVOLVED NOW!
